

Membership Benefits

- for just $25 per year -

Expert Demonstrations

- Live turning demonstrations at our monthly meetings featuring well known turners.

Show and Tell

- Bring your turnings to monthly meetings to show to other members,
- View other members work for inspiration,
- Around the Show and Tell table, you can swap experience and knowledge of woods, chucking, tools, techniques, sharpening and finishing.

Library of Books and Videos

- Our collection of books, magazines, and videos is constantly growing – and covers all stages of experience in woodturning: from beginner to expert; from pens to bowls to hollow forms. All library items are available for borrowing by WoO members.

Access to Mentors

- Some of our more experienced members generously volunteer to act as mentors to other members. If you need help with a project or have a woodturning questions, find a mentor at our monthly meeting.

Access to Quality Wood for Turning - You'll have access to wood through WoO's

- monthly wood raffle,
- email announcements of wood available in the area,
- club wood collection events,
- wood auction,
- member discounts at local wood merchants

Talking with Other Turners

- Meetings provide an opportunity to meet other turners to share ideas, techniques and the enjoyment of working with wood. No matter what your specific interest is (segmented turning, hollow vessels, bowls, pens etc.), you'll find someone who also specializes in that, and who will willingly share their knowledge. You'll learn more from regularly brushing elbows with other turners than by any other means!

Up to Date Information

- Email notices to members provide information about upcoming meetings, turning events, available wood, and all day demonstrations/classes in the Puget Sound area,
- Our website provides this information plus a gallery of member's work, links to other woodturning clubs, a bulletin board for member announcements, and listing of merchant discounts available to members.

Special Club Events: Members can participate in
